WHY CHOOSE FOREMOST?

What if ...	What's included in your motorcycle insurance policy?	What's included in a Foremost motorcycle insurance policy?
My bike breaks down while I'm on a day ride?	Typical motorcycle insurance may cover a tow truck to come out, but it may not be a bike expert. You may want to check with your insurer.	Our specialized towing and roadside assistance program includes professionals who know how to tow a bike and may have tips on where you can choose to take it for proper repair.
I take a small spill on my bike and damage my safety equipment (goggles, helmet, etc.) beyond repair?	You may be replacing the safety equipment with money out of your pocket.	A Foremost policy offers safety apparel coverage when collision coverage is purchased, which means your replacement safety equipment is covered up to coverage limits.
I purchase a new bike, a couple months later I have a mishap, and the bike is considered a total loss?	With some motorcycle insurance, your settlement may fall short of the purchase price of your motorcycle.	With our Replacement Cost Total Loss Settlement option, you're able to replace your bike with one like kind and quality, up to 120% of the purchase price.
I'm in an accident on my bike, and the other person is at fault and has no insurance?	Some policies cover a replacement bike, but they may not cover your medical bills. And some may cover your medical bills but not all the bells and whistles on your bike.	A Foremost policy helps you protect yourself financially if you're in an accident with someone who's at fault and has no insurance or insufficient insurance.
